Celebrate Christmastide

On the traditional liturgical calendar, the Christmas season (also known as Christmastide) lasts 40 days. It begins with the vigil Mass said on Christmas Eve, and ends on February 2nd, Candlemas, which is the day on which we celebrate the feast of Jesus' presentation in the temple.

1. Keep your nativity scenes on display. Don't take down your tree. Keep your Christmas lights on each day as the day ends and the sky darkens. Light candles near your manger scene, perhaps while the family eats dinner.

2. Pray the Litany to the Child Jesus. This keeps fresh in our minds and hearts the joy of the Christ Child.

3. Take note of the various saints' feast days that are celebrated during the Christmas season. Ask them for their intercession. The saints are eager to offer petitions on our behalf!

4. Consider hosting Christmas parties AFTER Christmas day. Much of the rush and anxiety is over, people are no longer attending office / family/ friends' parties, and there is more down time. This opens spots on people's calendars (and reminds us that Christmas is not over!)

5. Host an Epiphany Party. The Feast of Epiphany celebrates the visit of the Magi and their gifts to the Christ Child. This party can feature candlelight, wonderful food, singing Christmas carols and hymns together, and quality time with people who are a blessing in our lives. F

6. If you have some days off from work, you could go to daily Mass or to Adoration. If you have the chance to do something active, social, or busy, you might consider graciously declining once or twice, and take time to rest in the peace of Christ instead.

Dear St Mary's and Assumption parishioners,

Merry Christmas Season to all. As busy as we were preparing for Christmas, I hope you find peace and rest in the season as we contemplate the mystery, the miracle of our Christmas gift, that changed everything. May you feel the love of family, especially the Holy Family.

Our parish is grateful for all those who helped to decorate the Church last Sunday and those who put on the final additions to make it even more beautiful. We are blessed to hear lots of young and experienced voices and musicians practicing for the Christmas liturgies. We were blessed with good numbers for confessions at the many times they were offered. Thanks to Fr. Beardslee for prepping and serving the delicious ramen dinner (first ever) for the priests following communal penance service. Thanks to those who brought us baked Christmas goodies, in the form of breads (I savored toasted Czech Houska with butter for at least 7 days straight), cookies, kolaches (did not last that long), drinks (keep that private) and cards with nice notes, gift cards... we feel the love (and the need to exercise more). I was blessed to have help sending Christmas cards to family and friends. I was able to make my mother's Christmas coffee cake (trying not to eat it).

I am enjoying a book by Amy Coney Barrett (Supreme Court Justice) called Listening to the Law. She is an amazing mother of seven (one with down syndrome). She and her husband had a comfortable life in South Bend, IND where she taught law at Notre Dame. When asked to consider working on the highest court in the USA, she wondered about giving up a familiar life for more pressure, unknowns, demands upon her and her family and moving to Washington, DC. She accepted the sacrifices that she would embrace for the sake of serving her country. The book helps me appreciate those in our country who make similar sacrifices daily for the good of others. I am learning more about how the Supreme court and lower courts work. She is a graduate of a Catholic HS and ranked first in class at ND.

As we celebrate the Holy Family this weekend, we look to our Immaculate Mother Mary, foster Father Joseph and the Child Jesus and how they through their obedience and humility, brought true joy to the world. Their presence continues as Emmanuel, God is with us, in our prayers, our sacraments, in others where we see the presence of Christ and the Holy Spirit and other ways. May God bless you and your family, and our Parish family, as we pray and rest in His presence. A Blessed and Happy New Year!

In the Christ child, FBC

PS Thanks for your prayers for my nephew Patrick. An Update: Happy Christmas Eve everyone. First thanks for reaching out and checking in on me. Been a journey. My creatinine is back to 3.2 as of labs last evening. They just pulled blood this morning for new labs, so I am waiting for those results and to speak with doctors. The good news is that my weight has decreased 41 pounds since last Thursday. I feel much better and my hope is that my creatinine continues to lower with my weight loss. They decreased my tacrol (med) intake from 3 mg twice a day to 2 mg twice a day which will also affect my creatinine all other numbers look stable. Today's bloodwork results should also show the levels of CMV in my blood, which will decide a reevaluation for ATG and kidney biopsy. More to come. Drink your water. Much love.
