Pastor’s Corner

Dear Parishioners:

Our removal of the concrete pads and gutter spill pads went easy and hard. Hauling off the pads took four strong backs about 20 minutes. That was the easy part. But the original concrete gutters were massive, averaging about 12 inches thick. They were built to last a millennium. Big thanks to the Jason Miller and his boys for their manpower and work on this. Jason Campbell and his crew came with a heavy jack hammer on a skid loader and his crew and helped finished the job. Ray K and Ken S framed up the pads for the AC units and they are now poured, thanks again to Jason Campbell’s concrete crew. The many loads of dirt were brought on sight by Paul Krivanek. Ron Lyons and Ken Smith helped bring the dirt close to the church with the cemetery tractor. Wednesday night, we had a very nice crew of 25 who helped to cut out the sod and put the dirt in place around the Church. We fed them burgers and brats afterwards (some of crew in picture). On Thursday, Fr. Schukei worked with another crew to bring in more dirt, reinstall the sod and further prepare the dirt for more sod and plantings. THANKS TO ALL WHO HAVE HELPED. We could not do it without you and we have saved a lot of money. We still have a ways to go but thank God we had a very successful week. We were blessed with a nice rainfall on Thursday as God’s way of helping and approving our efforts.

Ordinations were Friday and Saturday at the Cathedral of the Risen Christ. We were very excited to have Ranil ordained a deacon along with Aquinas grad Augustine Reimers. Then Saturday, to have another Aquinas grad, Scott Nemec, ordained a priest along with Fr. Schilmoeller and Fr. Redinger. We are happy to welcome Deacon Ranil to preach the morning Masses on Pentecost Sunday. I am sure the power of the Holy Spirit will be very evident. I enjoyed meeting his parents and two younger sisters in Lincoln this past Thursday. They will also be here on Sunday and his father (and sisters) looks just like him. Please welcome them.

Monday is Memorial Day. We have four Masses (plus one at David Place) to pray for our deceased military and loved ones. Please come and join us. We are fortunate to have such good care for our St. Mary’s and Appleton cemeteries. They should be lovely outdoor Masses at St Mary’s at 9:30 a.m. and Appleton at 1:30 p.m.

Monday, I go on my annual retreat to Our Lady of Good Counsel Retreat House at Waverly. It is always a very enjoyable, restful and anointed time. We are always blessed with a good retreat master, lots prayer time, fraternity, recreation (softball, walking) and good meals.

On Wednesday, we will have sod delivered to install around the church. If you can help, we will begin around NOON. Please consider helping Fr. Schukei with the sod, watering or whatever. I will be praying for all of you, for more progress and rainfall.

God bless you, FBC
